FOR FATHERS

Dads make a difference! Children need their fathers. Children who have regular contact with their fathers are more likely to finish school, remain free of drugs and alcohol and avoid poverty. Most initiatives designed to help children who don't have contact with their fathers focus on financial support. At Community Action Opportunities, we believe that a father's responsibilities as a parent, authority figure, role model and nurturer are equally critical.

Life Works for Fathers serves:

- Single fathers
- Intact families
- Incarcerated fathers
- Teenage fathers
- Teenage males before they become fathers

In Life Works for Fathers, we understand that some men need help as they increase their presence in their children's lives. We support and guide a growing number of men who live on limited incomes as they try to fulfill all of their parental obligations and resolve the complex problems that their families face.

Life Works for Fathers helps men to:

- Navigate the child support system and prepare for other legal and financial situations
- Increase their financial and emotional support of their children
- Become more aware of their parental rights and obligations
- Improve their parenting skills
- Resolve visitation and custody issues
- Develop and maintain healthy relationships with their children and other adults in their children's lives
- Establish paternity
- Identify and use a variety of community resources for families
